UNLUCKY RUN OF PASSENGER TRAIN

Three Men Instantly Killed and One Injured By Same Train at Different Points.

By Associated Press.

Huntington, Aug. 4.—The Guyan-dotte Valley passenger train from Logan to this city had an unlucky run to-day, killing three men and injuring another.

Frank Adkins was struck by the train shortly after leaving Logan, while crossing the track and instantly killed, and a companion was seriously injured. John Ashan, an aged farmer at Barboursville was killed, evidently thinking the train ran upon another track.

While the engine was returning to the roundhouse after arriving in this city, George Zircle, who was walking on the track, was struck and instantly killed.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third Street, Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years, and I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary.

No Way to Get Even.

A New York journalist once went down to Atlanta to interview Joel Chandler Harris, says the Outlook. When he told the creator of Uncle Remus that he was going to "write him up" the kindly southerner was immediately reminded of the experience of his old friend, Simon Sugg.

"Simon Sugg," he said, "was an odd old fellow who used to live down state. I knew him well when I was a boy. One day a friend met him.

"Simon," said he, "do you remember Jim Hooper, that went to school with us down at Monticello?"

"Jim Hooper?" Of course I remember Jim Hooper. Little slim fellow, wasn't he?"

"Yaas. Well, Jim's gone and nov-eled you!"

"Nov-eled me, hes he?" said Simon. "Well, ding his hide!"

Young Idlers of the Time.

Among the moderately well to do there is an army of young men growing up in idleness in this country who think it beneath their dignity to learn a trade or follow a profession and who in many instances form that large class known as genteel idlers. They have been pampered and petted by their parents until they have come to the conclusion that the world owes them a living without their having to work for it or give an equivalent in toll. They are in truth a menace to the peace and welfare of the country, and those who encourage them to it are as reprehensible as they.—Knox City Tribune.

The White of an Egg.

The white of an egg is made up of little cells filled with albumen. By beating the white these cells are ruptured, and oxygen from the air is introduced, which gives the white and light appearance to beaten eggs. The white of a stale egg will not inclose as much oxygen, will not be as light and as easily digested as that of the fresh egg and, of course, less valuable. The importance of beating the egg in cold, pure air is readily seen.

Not Encouraging.

"Good evening," said Borem when she came down to him. "I really must apologize for coming so late, but the cars—"

"Oh," she interrupted coldly, "I don't mind late comers. It's the late stayers that bother me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

REST MADE EASY.

There Will be Less Sleeplessness When Pensacola People Learn This. Can't rest at night with a bad back, a lame, a weak or an aching one. Doan's Kidney Pills are for bad backs.

They cure every form of kidney ills. From common backache to diabetes. They are endorsed by Pensacola people.

T. Torgensen, fisherman, living at 108 South Florida Blanca street, says: "I am enjoying better health than I have had for months, and I attribute it to Doan's Kidney Pills. For more than two years I had difficulty with my kidneys, causing me to get up several times during the night and which was very annoying. I tried a number of remedies, but seemed to get no relief. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I was feeling dull and miserable and could hardly get around so I went to Sidney Kahn's drug store, No. 9 South Palafox street, and secured a box. After using the first one I felt a great deal better in every way and by the time I had finished the second box I was cured. My rest was not disturbed nights and the dull miserable feeling vanished."

Sleep impossible with scratching Eczema diseased feet and ankles.

Read what this Indianapolis man says and believe that this is more than medicine talk.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 23, 1904. About two years ago I had a bad case of eczema on my hands, which later broke out on my feet and ankles. Nobody knows what I suffered as I lay awake at night trying to devise some way to keep from scratching the diseased places. I tried physicians, but got little or no relief. I tried patent remedies with little results. I began to feel it was almost insupportable, when I was induced to try a bottle of D. D. D. The effect of the first application was worth many times the price of one bottle. I continued using D. D. D. for six weeks and I was completely cured. I have never had any signs of recurrence of the disease.

Such misery now cleared away as surely as the sun shines above. Not merely attempted, not a matter of improvement merely, not a temporary relief—but a clearing of it all away absolutely and permanently. The D. D. D. Prescription, a specific formula, put up in sealed bottles with authentic label at $1.00 per bottle, has proven to be the only certain cure for these diseases. Its record of cures is astonishing, amazing, almost miraculous. It is a liquid, used externally, non-greasy.

Try it on our guarantee. "Write the Medical Department, D. D. D. Company, Chicago, for free consultation and advice."

ZANZIBAR.

Its Fragrant Clove Forests and Its Malodorous City Streets.

It is difficult to describe in fitting language the clove gardens of Zanzibar. The "spicy breezes" which are said to "blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle" blow with equal softness and perhaps no less spiciness through Zanzibar's beautiful clove forests. The whole island abounds in richest vegetation, but the clove forests are its real beauty spots. And what a grateful change their fragrant shade from the oriental odors and genuinely bad smells of the stuffy streets of the old town itself! For Zanzibar is not like an American city in the width of its streets and the architecture of its buildings. There is scarcely a thoroughfare in the whole place wide enough to permit two vehicles to pass, and the system of sanitation is almost as primitive as that of the garden of Eden; hence some of the smells. Fortunately the clove forests are not far away. Zanzibar has no docks or wharfs. All goods are landed or shipped by means of lighters. The tidal rise is about fourteen feet and the fall necessarily the same. Vast stretches of beach are thus left bare at low water; hence more smells. But, with all its drawbacks, Zanzibar is not particularly unhealthy. It is hot, vigorously, viciously hot, but still the people, the white people, manage to live there in comparative comfort and in spare hours play golf, tennis and sometimes even football.—E. Verne Richardson in American Syren and Shipping.

COMMISSIONERS ARE ENJOINED

played in the prosecution of B. H. Burton, the cost not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00.) Motion to adjourn until July 1 carried. Attest, Chairman.

Third, That at the aforesaid meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of said county when said resolution was offered and made that there was not then, and is not now, any law authorizing said commissioners to employ an attorney to aid in the prosecution of a criminal matter wherein they can appropriate the funds belonging to said county for the purpose of paying for the services of said attorney.

H. Burton or for any other purpose not allowed by law.

Fifth, That complainant believes that unless an injunction is issued immediately and without notice to the defendant, Escambia County, Florida, the said sum of three hundred dollars, as shown part thereof, as shown by resolution above mentioned, will be spent without the authority of law, and to the irreparable injury of said complainant and said county.

To the end, therefore, that the said defendant, Escambia County, Florida, its officers, the Board of County Commissioners, agents, employees, and servants of said county (oath being waived) to the best and utmost of their remembrance, information, knowledge and belief, full, true, direct and perfect answers make to the premises, and that your Honor will be pleased to grant an injunction against the said Escambia County, the Board of County Commissioners, composed of A. And that complainant may have such other and further relief as in the premises may seem meet and fit, and complainant prays that process of subpoena and injunction may issue, directed to the defendant, Escambia county, Florida, returnable according to law.

And Complainant will ever pray, etc. THOS. PEBLEY.

This bill of complaint is sworn to by Mr. Pebley.

Injunction Granted.

The injunction prayed for was granted by Commissioner Coston and is now on file.

What action the commissioners will take has not yet been learned, but if they decide to fight the matter their course will be to ask to have the injunction dissolved, and they will have until the first Monday in September to decide upon the course they will take.

EVER TREAT YOU SO?

Coffee Acts the Jonah and Will Come Up.

A clergyman who pursues his noble calling in a country parish in Iowa, tells of his coffee experience:

"My wife and I used coffee regularly for breakfast, frequently for dinner and occasionally for supper—always very best quality—package coffee never could find a place on our table."

"In the spring of 1896 my wife was taken with violent vomiting which we had great difficulty in stopping."

"We seemed to come from coffee drinking but we could not decide."

"In the following July, however, she was attacked for a second time by the vomiting. I was away from home filling an appointment, at the time, and on my return I found her very low; she had literally vomited herself almost to death, and it took some days to quiet the trouble and restore her stomach."

"I had also experienced the same trouble, but not so violently, and had relieved it, each time, by a resort to medicine."

"But my wife's second attack satisfied me that the use of coffee was at the bottom of our troubles, and so we stopped it forthwith and took on Postum Food Coffee. The old symptoms of disease disappeared and during the 5 years that we have been using Postum instead of coffee we have never had a recurrence of the vomiting. We never weary of Postum, to which we know we owe our good health. This is a simple statement of facts." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

"Read the little book 'The Road to Wellville,' in each package."
